National Geography Bee!

Friday, January 31, 2020

- Memorize country names and capitals
- Major rivers
- Highest & lowest points
- Major economic features
- Know major ecosystems, tundras, deserts, forests etc...

Check out our beautifully decorated Library! Share a holiday book with someone you love. It is the cheapest but greatest gift!

Principal's Message

Dear Parents and Guardians,

As a follow up to our "Back to School Night" I would like to remind everyone that you are invited to be an active member of our Title 1 services, which allows us to offer additional support for our students. Please contact me if you have any questions or would like to offer feedback.

Mr. Pickard
