

Creative Arts Committee

Location: BRMES Room 123

Date: Monday, January 27th

Attendees: Kim Hamilton, Alice Brown, Jared Hopkins, Holly Pedrow

Time: 3:45-5:00

I. Call to order

II. Review last meeting minutes

III. Open Business

- Kim collected cards and money from all locations. Cards are still in place at the Bistro, 44 North, and Mountain Java. It was decided to move all cards to the Bistro where they will remain in place until they are sold out. Jared will contact district office to update the district website. The new information will state that new card sales with 2020 art will be available this spring.
- The Heartland Home Show has happened. A big thank you to Alison Foudy for all her help judging and framing. Two students were awarded "Best of Show" and were given gift cards to My Father's Place on behalf of CAC. Kim sent a thank you and photos to The GIG Foundation. Art for Heartland has been scheduled to happen once 3rd and 4th quarter. Janell Hodsdon and Kim Hamilton will switch places and teach.
- Updates need to be made to website. Kim will share the document in One Drive so that all committee members can update as necessary before the next meeting.

New Business

- Juried Art Show – Committee members selected this year's winners. A frame order was sent to Wendy Davenport at DES. A tentative schedule for the rotating show was created and is contingent on the arrival of the frames for framing. Jared will photograph the art and Kim will proof the names for greeting cards. The winners are as follows:

KDG Wren Wolfenden, 1st Jayda Wright, 2nd Alice Hopkins, 3rd Ava Thrower, 4th Iker Lozano Juica, 5th Emerson Dummar, 6th Lucille Bennett, 7th Avery Havens, 8th Keaton Swift, 9th Sierra Anderton, 10th Lexi Swift, 11th Nicky Gebhards, 12th Nina Dittmer, Heartland Skylee Wells

- Scholarship for CAC- The committee updated and agreed on the scholarship of $400 for this year's MDHS arts student. Kim has emailed the information to Rebecca Shepard and Cynthia Dittmer.

IV. Adjournment

Time 4:45 pm

Minutes submitted by: Kim Hamilton

Next Meeting will be scheduled when the frames arrive.